Missions Corner

A few months ago, there was a prayer request for a couple in North Africa to be able to secure a rental property in a new city before the owner went back to France. The country was shut down at the time because of Covid. The couple happily reports that they have been able to rent the house and have moved to this brand new city where there is not one church. They will be teaching English as their “reason for being”. Please pray for divine encounters and for people to have dreams and seek Jesus.
